Target version:	0.2.0-beta1	OS:	Any
Version:	0.13.1
Description
When selecting text within a chatttext line the text gets cramped.
But when you select multiple lines of text, the text looks correctly. Like before - but selected.

Issue of the old ChatWidget. Annoying only in rare cases, and can't be fixed easily without pouring a lot of unnecessary work into code that is doomed anyway. Will resolve itself automagically in 0.3.x.
