Quassel IRC - Bug #1385

auto-reconnect not working

Description

If I leave my quassel client on OS X running, it always ends up disconnected. I've tried both Automatic Network Status detection as well as ping timeout of 60s and it still always ends up logging me out and requiring manually going to file / connect to core to reconnect which is annoying as it defeats the purpose of using quassel in the first place.

I have the same problem on v0.12.4 under OS X.
