Description

In the main chat window you first have to drag the black column lines in the direction dragged last to 'unlock them'. They are not directly movable: e.g. I drag the timestamp bar left, release it, now I want to drag it to the right (not possible). I first have to drag it a few pixels to the left & can only then drag it to the right.

Fix and Qt-4.6-ify ColumnHandleItem

Now that we depend on Qt 4.6, use QGraphicsObject and QPropertyAnimation.
Also, the columnhandle can now no longer get lost while moving.
Fixes #247, fixes #687.
